UNSUCCESSFUL OPERA.

Atlantic City. There was no "Grand Duchess" per-Atlantic City last Saturday night, and the Philadelphia Press thus explains it: The lights are out and the scenery gone. Gen. Boum and Fritz, Messrs. Wheeler and lights are out and the scenery gone. Gen. Boum and Fritz, Messrs. Wheeler and Hardy, heard of the trouble this morning about the same time as the Duchess, Ethel Lynton. The trouble may be said to have begun when the place was leased by Mr. Kauffman, of Washington, for the National Opera Company. He signed a $1,400 rental lease for the season closing Oct. 1. Manager Strasburger came on after a payment of $500 had been made, only to find that all the stage effects were advertised for sale by the sheriff to meet mechanic's liens. He consulted a lawyer, and it was finally arranged, with Proprietor Kendricks's consent, that the regular fostallments of rent should be paid against their claims. This had been done, and only a few dollars of the latter remained. But the salaries and other expenses here run on to some extent, and then, it is whispered, a scandal led to additional trouble. Wednesday night Mr. Kendricks turned off the gas before the performance began. Manager Strasburger had it turned on again. Last night the garden had its biggest andlence of the season, with indications of good business for the remainder of the month. The scenery, however, was removed to-day, and, it is claimed, cannot be attached, as it is the personal property of Mr. Strasburger, who cannot be held for the rental—about $600 being due on other debts—he being only the agent of Mr. Kauffman. The former cannot be seen; sending word to inquirers that he is ill. Meanwhile, the Grand Duchess, Gen. Boum, and Fritz are out, but the two latter say, referring to their unpaid salaries, it will be all right.

CONTRACTS FOR STREET WORK. Why Concrete Pavements Must be Less Expensive.

The engineer commissioner states that the contracts for street pavements will be awarded early this week. The appropria-tion bill limited the cost of asphalt pavements to $2 per square yard; heretofore it has been $2.25. The Barber Asphalt Comhas been $2.25. The Barber Asphalt Com-pany has put in a qualified bid at $2 per square yard. The company proposes to lay a 4-inch base, 25 per cent, to be com-posed of Portland eement, instead of a 6-inch base, as heratofore. No new pave-ment will be laid on Fifteenth street, in front of the treasury, this year. Builders will receive special permits for laying ma-terials on parrow streets. terials on parrow streets.

Six Lieutenants Wanted. Since the chief signal officer has been deprived of jurisdiction over Fort Myer he has asked the Secretary of War to detail has asked the Secretary of War to detail the six lieutenants now stationed at that post to duty in the signal office. The Secretary questioned the necessity of this, and on Saturday Gen. Hazen answered that four of his officers were away on inspection duty, and he wanted the Fort Myer lieutenants to take their places. No answer to this appeal has been given by the Secretary. Gen. Hazen will leave to-day on an inspection tour of the western signal offices.

Supposed to Have Been Set on Fire.
A stable owned by Catherine Dentz and ecupled by Wm. T. Guindon, in rear of 917 Twenty-sixth street, was destroyed by 917 Twenty-sixth street, was destroyed by fire at 9:15 o'clock Saturday night. During the fire a horse and wagon were consumed by the flames. Damage, $490. The alarm from box 319 at 12 o'clock Saturday night was for the partial burning of an unfinished house on Q atreet, near Twentieth northwest The origin of the fire is unknown, and it is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Damage, $500.

Preaching at the Capitol. While in Chicago a few days ago Rev. Dr. Milburn, chaplain of the House of Representatives, said there was a disposition on the part of a great many members of Congress to have preaching resumed Sun-days at the capitol, which custom went out of vogue during the war. Many public men, he said, disliked to attend service at the so-called popular churches, as they were often obliged to stand up with their families owing to the large congregations.

Father of Twenty-Four Children. Md., has just been celebrating the birth of his twenty-fourth child, a bouncing thirteen-pound baby girl, who has been named Frances Folson Cleveland Gossard. Don't be a clam and continue to pay exorbitant prices for your clothes when we are offering the finest kinds for prices usually charged for the most inferior grades. The slient eloquence of our show windows tells the story of our goods and prices far bat-that the members of the grange feit warranted in uniting and making it a permament affair. They made application to the legislature and were incorporated as the Grange Camp Association of Northern virginia. The association has purchased a beautiful grove of forty acres on the Washington, Ohio and Western railroad, about thirty minutes' ride from this city, where they propose bolding an annual industrial exhibition. Buildings are being erected in which the large exhibit of agricultural, horticultural, floral, and household products are to be displayed. The man building is devoted to a display of pianos, organs, sewing machines, and other manufactured articles. The fine display of agricultural implements is made under the shade of the trees. The stock and poultry departments are to be well arranged.

The exhibition of isse will open September 8, and close on the 15th. There will be

A FINISHING TOUCH!

We are just now putting a finishing touch to prices on our Light-Weight Woolen

This is the season for Old Garments. when one wants a pair of pants to piece out the summer suits, or a coat and vest to carry one through until fall. It is the season, also, of "Broken Lots" in the clothing stores, and Broken Lots mean Broken Prices. Our line of Cassimere Pants is too large. The "Finishing Touch" has been put on them also, and it will pay you to take a little time to fit yourself. Nearly everything (not quite, for there are some goods that we can't get enough of), have the finishing touch to them and now is the time to buy.
